The Stars in Your Eyes

What famous people have you met and what were they like? Were they everything you expected? Did you meet them by accident? Tell us all about your encounters with people that we know from TV, radio, the big screen, and more. If you haven't met a famous person, who would you like to meet? What do you think the meeting would be like? How do you think you would react emotionally? We can't wait to hear more.
